(8) Subject to section 67, the authority may borrow by way of temporary loans from any bank or from any person or corporation, any sums, upon any terms, for any purposes and upon any conditions that the authority may determine by way of bank overdraft or line of credit, or by the pledging as security for such temporary loans of notes, bonds, debentures or other securities of the authority pending their sale or in lieu of selling them, or in any other manner that the authority may determine, and any cheques, promissory notes or other instruments that may be necessary or desirable in connection with the borrowing of money and the obtaining of advances by way of temporary loans may be executed in any manner that the authority may determine.
